1. Between 2 and 9 July 1952 replacement units formed of about 18,000 new recruits from the Liaohsi and Jehol Military Districts passed through Mukden en route to Antung. The units will report for duty at the rear headquarters of the Volunteer Army at Antung and will replace various units of the 4 Field Army now regrouping north of the Yalu River.
2. The units were led by CH'IU Hsien-t'ung (6726/0341/6639), deputy political commissar of the Liaohsi Military District, and HUANG Ming-cheng (7806/2494/2398), deputy director of the Military Affairs Department of Jehol.
3. This is the third time since the Chinese Communists' entrance into the Korean war that Liaohsi and Jehol have furnished replacements for 4 Field Army units. Replacements from these two provinces total about 70,000 men.
